Lucky 10 announced by potato race organisers

Ten local groups are celebrating after receiving a share from the proceeds of the annual Ely potato race.

Isle of Ely Produce, race organisers, were inundated with requests for a share of the £3,000 pot and company directors, then mayor Cllr Ian Lindsay looked at each application in detail before choosing the winning causes.

Oliver Boutwood, Isle of Ely Produce director, hoped the potato race money will deliver the required results for those chosen which are: The Chicken Shed, Elystan School for the Disabled, Ely Squadron Air Training Corps, Ely Stained Glass Museum, Camboocia, Royal British Legion, Pos+blity, Centre E Youth Hub, Ely Museum, Yana Project.

The Lantern, St John's, and St Mary's Primary Schools benefited from money raised by the children's race and Ely Hereward Rotary Club, who act as race stewards, also benefited.

The 2017 race is on October 14.

All the beneficiaries from this year's potato race handout.
